The Breast Cancer Family Foundation Names 2017 Board of Directors

Six new members will replace five outgoing

Green Bay, WI – The Breast Cancer Family Foundation (BCFF), a local non-profit organization providing educational presentations on cancer awareness and prevention, has announced the appointments of its 2017 Board of Directors. The six new members will replace five outgoing members of the board.

Outgoing members include Susan Van Asten, Janet Mashl, and Cheri Feser – All of United Healthcare. Mary Nemec of DeLeers Construction and Barb Mueller of Little Rapids Corporation also conclude their service as members of the board.

New board members include Cathy Jarosinski of United Healthcare, Kevan Kay of N-Tech Consulting, Kathy Donovan of Little Rapids Corporation, Sam Mehlberg of Bellin Health, Christina Peterson of One Law Group, S.C., and Diane Gaywont of myTeam Triumph.

“We are thrilled to see members of the community engaging with our mission by joining our board. Each one brings a skill set, perspective and energy to our organization that complements those of our existing members. They will help guide our continued growth, development of new partnerships, and awareness of the importance of cancer prevention education to teens at a critical time in their personal development,” said Dr. Edward Lin, newly-elected Board President. “We also thank our board members who are leaving after many years of dedicated service to BCFF. They will be missed.”

The 2017 Board of Directors will to be led by Board President Dr. Edward Lin of Orthodontics Specialists of Green Bay. Also joining the 2017 Executive Board are Dean Raasch as Board Vice President and Diane Gaywont as Secretary. Tony Krance of 401K Plan Advisors resumes his role as Treasurer, and Laura Jarosz continues as Executive Director of the organization. Stacie Hackl of New Perspective Senior Living-Howard and Dave Suemnick also continue with the 2017 Board.

“We have a lot of exciting things planned for this year including enhancing our two events – the Tiletown Bike Tour and Pink Pumpkin 5K Walk/Run,” commented Laura Jarosz, executive director. “At the heart of our foundation is cancer awareness and prevention education. We are committed to ensuring that all junior and senior high school teens in Northeast and Central Wisconsin are armed with the information they need to lead healthy lifestyles. Our vision is to someday have a generation that never hears the words ‘you have cancer’.”
